

NATIONAL ANTIMICROBIAL RESISTANCE (AMR) FORUM ONE HEALTH

2 - 3 November 2017
Registration essential

Pharmacy Australia
Centre of Excellence (PACE)
L4, 20 Cornwall St
Woolloongabba, QLD 4102

<http://bit.ly/2r2zjPU>

Thursday 2 November - workshops

1. What do nurses need to know about Antimicrobial Stewardship?
2. Specialist Antimicrobial Stewardship (ICU/Haematology/Oncology)
3. Veterinary/One Health Workshop
4. Drug discovery and development

Friday 3 November - Antimicrobial Resistance (AMR) Forum

Keynote speakers

Alison Holmes - Professor of Infectious Diseases at Imperial College and the Director of Infection Prevention and Control (DIPC) and Associate Medical Director for Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust

Anton Peleg - Professor of Infectious Diseases and Microbiology Director, Department of Infectious Diseases The Alfred Hospital and Monash University Melbourne

Video conferencing available

Contact: Statewide.AMS@health.qld.gov.au

Thank you to our sponsors

THE UNIVERSITY
OF QUEENSLAND
AUSTRALIA

Queensland
Government

A joint initiative of The University of Queensland's Institute for Molecular Bioscience Centre for Superbug Solutions, Queensland Statewide Antimicrobial Stewardship Program, National Centre for Antimicrobial Stewardship, The Centre of Research Excellence in Redefining Antimicrobial Use to Reduce Resistance and Queensland University of Technology.

THE UNIVERSITY
OF QUEENSLAND
AUSTRALIA | IMB
Institute for Molecular Bioscience

CRE REDUCE
CENTRE OF RESEARCH EXCELLENCE
Redefining Antimicrobial Use To Reduce Resistance